DECREE

COMES NOW the parties, upon Motion of the Petitioner, Wesley C. Smith (“Petitioner”), for visitation with the parties’ minor child, Liam Smith (“the Child”);

UPON CONSIDERATION thereof, the evidence, pleadings and documents filed herein as well as the argument and representations of counsel;

IT APPEARS to the Court that the Motion should be granted; it is therefore

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that Petitioner shall be entitled to exclusive use of the Master Bedroom of the marital residence and Respondent, Cheri Smith (“Respondent”), shall be entitled to the exclusive use of the Guest Room of the marital residence; and it is further

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that neither party shall enter the respective rooms without the express consent of the other; and it is further

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the parties shall have joint legal custody of the Child with primary physical custody residing with the Respondent; and it is further

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that on Monday through Friday, during such times as the Respondent is at work, and continuing for the duration of the Petitioner's unemployment, the Child shall not attend daycare and shall instead be under the care of the Petitioner subject to the conditions set forth below;

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that Petitioner shall have visitation, under the following terms and conditions:

A. Until the Petitioner obtains full time employment, the Petitioner shall care for the Child at all times when the Respondent is at work;

B. Until the Petitioner obtains full time employment, the Petitioner shall pick the Child up from the bus stop on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and thereafter care for the Child until the Respondent returns home from work;

C. Petitioner shall pick the Child up from the bus stop on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and thereafter have visitation with the Child until 9:00 p.m.;

D. Petitioner shall have further visitation with the Child on Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.;

E. The parties shall give reasonable notice to the other if they intend to take the Child to any activity lasting longer than four hours;

F. Respondent will refrain from taking any action, making any communication or otherwise interfering with Petitioner in the exercise of his visitation with the Child;

G. Respondent shall not deny Petitioner access to the Child during the days in which visitation is not scheduled and shall not prevent the Child from spending time with Petitioner if the Child so desires;

H. Petitioner shall refrain from locking the door to the Master Bedroom during his aforesaid visitation times only, and, during such times, only when the Child is in the room;

AND the Clerk is directed to forward a copy of this Decree to counsel for both parties upon entry thereof.
