Court denied motion for the Court to help him live closer to his son.

Court denied #1; #2; #3

Court continued order to prohibit visitation with son until

1. Father gets with the psychologist and receives a report that the visitation is beneficial;
2. The father is to submit to the court an acceptable plan for visitation; and
3. Court will not hear the motion for attorney's fees – Judge Alston to address.

Defendant moved for travel expenses – denied by the Court.

Defendant served with both the order from today and the Judge Alston's order of January 3, 2005 in court by the deputy sheriff.
